- Learn the design process
- Make it happen
- Helpful resources

Your tutor will be Gayle Souter-Brown. She is the Design Director of Greenstone Design Ltd, an international sustainable garden design consultancy. Her public and private designs focus on matching the needs of the client, within the local environment. Design for stress reduction, health and wellbeing feature strongly in her work. Gayle has been commissioned to design a wide variety of projects in NZ, Australia, Malaysia, France, Mexico, Portugal and UK.

Recently returned from the UK, a qualified teacher and experienced trainer, Gayle has tutored garden design to a global audience for the past 20 years. Gayle has written many articles and 2 books on garden design. Sensory gardens that provide places to pause, foods to pick and eat, objects to admire, scents to entice and sensations that enliven are her speciality.
